CA02 Project Allowances
CA01 General Conditions

ARTICLE 1. CONTRACT DOCUMENTS

1.1 The contract documents consist of this agreement, specifications, allowances, finish schedules, construction execution of this agreement and all change orders or modifications. All documents noted herein shall be provided to the Contractor and represent the entire agreement of both parties and supersede all other documents.

Updated annually, UDA Contracts are structured in clear, concise terms that allow all parties to fully understand expectations and avoid costly disagreements that can ruin or delay a project.

ARTICLE 2. SCOPE OF WORK

2.1 The Contractor agrees to remodel the above mentioned project according to the plans, drawings, addenda, modification and specification booklet.

Specifically written for residential and light commercial projects, UDA Contracts combine the skills of experienced construction professionals and attorneys to create expert agreements designed to save time, save money and limit liability.

ARTICLE 3. TIME OF COMPLETION

3.1 The approximate commencement and approximate completion date and/or unusual weather might or owner related delays, the Contractor shall complete the project is not completed within (number) (date).

Contract Documents & Scope of Work Definitions

The "Scope of Work" clause defines the labor and materials included in the contract by referencing the Construction Documents (Plans) and following attachments included in Construction Office Suites:

ARTICLE 4. THE CONTRACT PRICE

4.2 Pre-construction estimates for construction costs and coordination are approximately (written) Dollars, ($000,000.00) Closing costs shall be paid by the Owner.

4.3 The Owner and the Contractor acknowledge that the Owner will pay a sum of (written) Dollars, ($0,000.00), upon signing of this contract and before construction begins as a deposit and part of construction coordination fees for the project.

ARTICLE 5. PROGRESS PAYMENTS

5.1 The Owner will [redacted] and materials submitted [redacted] make payments to contractor [redacted] payment, contractor may charge a penalty of [redacted]

5.2 If payment is not received by the Contractor within 10 days of payment demand for work satisfactorily completed, the Contractor may terminate the contract at his option. Termination shall not relieve the Owner of the obligations of work performed prior to such termination. Termination shall not relieve the Owner of the obligations of payment prior to such termination.

ARTICLE 6. DUTIES OF THE CONTRACTOR

6.1 All work shall be in accordance to the contract and shall be in good working order.

6.2 All work shall be completed in a workmanlike manner, and shall comply with all applicable national, state and local building codes and laws.

6.3 All work shall be performed by licensed individuals to perform their said work, as outlined by law.

6.4 Contractor shall obtain all permits necessary for the work to be completed.

6.5 Contractor shall remove all construction debris and leave the project in a broom clean condition.

6.6 Upon satisfactory payment, the Contractor shall furnish a full and unconditional release of all claims which payment has been made

ARTICLE 7. OWNER

7.1 The Owner shall communicate with subcontractors

7.2 The Owner will not assume any liability for construction means, methods, techniques, sequences, or schedules in connection with the project, since these are so

Payment Guidelines and Requirements

The "Progress Payment" clause provides clear requirements for timely payments of draw requests, interest for late payments and the right to stop work if payment is not received within a defined number of days.

The Construction Draw Schedule (CA05 Payment Schedule) is referenced as an attachment and defines the exact amount due upon completion of each specific phase of construction.

Owner Responsibilities

UDA Contracts define and limit owner responsibilities, providing optional clauses to restrict direct owner interaction with subcontractors, a common situation which can lead to misunderstandings and disagreements concerning scope of work and potential change orders.

ARTICLE 8. CHANGE ORDERS AND FINISH SCHEDULES

8.1 A Change Order is any change to the original Scope of Work. All Change Orders shall be agreed upon in writing, including cost and schedule impact. Work on a Change Order will begin and be completed only after it is signed by both parties. 10% of the original contract price shall be added to all change orders and overages. Payment for change orders shall be taken into account when making payments to complete change orders shall be taken into account.

8.2 Completed Finish Selection Schedule

8.2.1 Schedule #1 within (number)

8.2.2 Schedule #2 within (number)

8.3 Any delays or changes in finish selection shall be reported to the Owner immediately.

ARTICLE 9. INSURANCE

9.1 The Owner will keep in force a Builder's Risk Insurance policy that covers both owner's and contractor's interests until completion of the project.

9.2 The Owner will purchase and maintain Commercial General Liability Insurance for the project, in case of a fire, vandalism, malicious damage or theft.

9.3 The Contractor shall purchase and maintain Commercial General Liability Insurance coverage as required by law and the contract documents.

ARTICLE 10. GENERAL PROVISIONS

10.1 If conditions are encountered during the performance of the contract that are not physical conditions of the site, those ordinarily found at the site, or those that are not those ordinarily found at the site, the Contractor will promptly investigate and report the results to the Owner. The cost of such investigation shall be in the Contractor's cost of, and/or the Contractor shall be responsible for, and with the Contractor an equitable adjustment shall be made to the contract price.

ARTICLE 11. HAZARDOUS MATERIALS

11.1 Both parties agree that during the performance of the contract, the Contractor shall take all necessary training, processes, precautions and safety measures to ensure the safe handling, disturbance, removal and disposal of hazardous materials. Upon discovery of such hazardous materials, the Contractor shall immediately notify the Owner/Contractor to contract with a licensed hazardous materials contractor. Such work shall be treated as a Change Order.

Change Orders & Finish Schedules

Change Orders

Recording and managing change orders can be the difference in profitability and practice on many projects. Each UDA Contract includes specific terms for additional costs and time considerations, as well as payment requirements for change orders.

CA08 Change Order - Fixed Contract
CA09 Change Order - Cost Plus

Finish Schedules

UDA construction contracts reference both Exterior and Interior Finish Schedules and provide deadlines for submission of finish selections.

CA03 Finish Schedule - Exterior
CA04 Finish Schedule - Interior

General Provisions & Hazardous Materials

General Provisions

The optional "General Provisions" clause provides for unforeseen or unusual circumstances, such as discovering extensive rock or subsurface water during excavation of a foundation.

Hazardous Materials

The "Hazardous Materials" clause allows for change orders with specialized licensed subcontractors upon discovery of hazardous materials, waste or asbestos.

ARTICLE 1. CONTRACT DOCUMENTS

1.1 The contract documents, including but not limited to specifications, allowances, finish schedules, and drawings, shall govern the execution of this agreement and all change orders. The intent of the Contract Documents is to ensure the completion of the work by the Contractor. Any other documents required by one party shall be as binding as if required by the other, only to the extent consistent with the Contract Documents necessary to produce the intended results.

1.2 The Contract Documents shall not be modified by (1) between the architect and contractor, (2) between the contractor and subcontractor, or (3) between any persons or entities other than the Contractor.

1.3 The term "work" means the construction, whether completed or partially completed, and the materials to be provided or to be provided by Contractor, which shall constitute the whole or a part of the project.

1.4 The drawings, specifications and other documents shall not become property of the Contractor upon commencement. Drawings, specifications and other documents by the owner on other projects, for additional work under this contract, for completion of this project by other means, shall be the property of the Contractor.

1.5 Submission or distribution of documents for any purposes in connection with the project is the Contractor's common law copyrights or other intellectual property documents nor the copyrights.

ARTICLE 2. OWNER

2.1 The Owner shall furnish all necessary surveys and a legal description of the site.

2.2 Except for permits and fees which are the responsibility of the Contractor under the Contract Documents, the Owner shall secure and pay for all necessary approvals, easements, assessments and charges required for the construction, use or occupancy of permanent structures or permanent changes in existing facilities.

2.4 If the Owner observes or otherwise becomes aware of a fault or defect in the work or any nonconformity with the design or Construction Documents, the Owner shall give prompt written notice to the Contractor.

2.5 The Owner shall furnish required information and services and shall promptly render decisions pertaining there to avoid delay in the orderly progress of the design and construction.

2.6 The Owner shall, at the request of the Contractor, provide a certified or notarized statement of funds available for the project and their source.

2.7 The Owner shall communicate with the subcontractors only through the Contractor.

2.8 The Owner will not have control over or charge of and will not be responsible for construction means, methods, techniques, sequences or procedures, or for safety precautions and programs in connection with the work, since these are solely the Contractor's responsibility.

2.9 The Owner will chose all finish selections, fixtures and equipment to be in budget with the allowances. Any overage or under will be calculated at the completion of the project. The allowances will include material, shipping and where noted installation costs.

ARTICLE 3. CONTRACTOR

3.1 The Contractor shall supervise and direct the work, using the Contractor's best skills and attention. The Contractor shall be solely responsible for and have control over construction means, methods, techniques, sequences and procedures and for coordinating all portions of the work under the contract.

3.2 Unless Contract Documents give other specific instructions concerning these matters, the Contractor shall provide and pay for all labor, materials, equipment, tools, construction equipment and machinery, water, heat, utilities, transportation and other facilities and services necessary for the proper execution and completion of the work, whether temporary or permanent and whether or not incorporated or to be incorporated in the work.

3.3 The Contractor shall enforce strict discipline and good order among the contractor's employees and other persons carrying out the contract. The Contractor shall not permit employment of unfit persons or persons not skilled in tasks assigned to them.

3.4 The Contractor warrants to the owner that materials and equipment furnished under this contractor will be of good quality and new unless otherwise required or permitted by the Contract Documents, that the work will be free from defects not inherent in the quality required or permitted and that the work will conform with the requirements of the Contract Documents. Work not conforming to these requirements, including substitutions not properly approved and authorized, may be considered defective. The Contractor's warranty excludes remedy for damage or defect caused by abuse, modification not executed by the Contractor, improper or insufficient maintenance, improper operation, or normal wear and tear under normal usage. If required by the Owner, the Contractor shall furnish satisfactory evidence as to the kind and quality of materials and equipment.

3.5 Unless otherwise provided in the Contract Documents, the Contractor shall pay sales, consumer, use and other similar taxes which are legally enacted when bids are received or negotiations concluded, whether or not yet effective or merely schedules to go into effect, and shall secure and pay for the building permit and other permits and Governmental fees, licenses and inspections necessary for proper execution and completion of the work.

3.6 The Contractor shall comply with and give notices required by laws, ordinances, rules and regulations, and lawful orders of public authorities bearing on performance of the work. The Contractor shall promptly notify the Owner if the drawings and specification are observed by the contractor to be at a variance therewith.

3.7 The Contractor shall be responsible to the Owner for the acts and omissions of the Contractor's employees, subcontractors and their agents and employees, and other persons performing portions of the work under a contract with the Contractor.

3.8 Design services shall be performed by a qualified professional selected and paid by the Owner. The professional obligations of such persons shall be undertaken and performed in the interest of the Contractor. Construction services shall be performed by qualified subcontractors and suppliers, selected and paid by the Contractor. There shall be no professional obligation or contractual relationship between such persons and the Owner.

3.9 The Contractor shall keep the Owner informed of the progress and quality of the work.

ARTICLE 4. RELATIONSHIP OF BOTH PARTIES

4.1 The Contractor accepts the relationship of trust and confidence established by this agreement and covenants with the Owner to cooperate with the Owner and utilize the Contractor's best skill, efforts and judgment in furthering the interests of the Owner; to furnish efficient business administration and supervision; to make best efforts to furnish at all times an adequate supply of workers and materials, and to perform the work in the best way and most expeditious and economical manner consistent with the interests of the Owner. The Owner agrees to exercise best efforts to enable the Contractor to perform the work in the best way and most expeditious manner by furnishing and approving in a timely way information required by the Contractor and making payments to the Contractor in accordance with the requirements of the Contract Documents.

ARTICLE 5. UNKNOWN CONDITIONS

5.1 If conditions are encountered at the site which are:

(1) Subsurface or otherwise concealed physical conditions which differ materially from those indicated in the Contract Documents

(2) Unknown physical conditions of an unusual nature, which differ materially from those ordinarily found to exist and generally recognized as inherent in construction activities of the character provided for in the construction documents, then notice by the observing party shall be given to the other party promptly before conditions are disturbed and in no event later than 21 days after the first observance of the conditions. The Owner will promptly investigate such conditions and will negotiate with the Contractor an equitable adjustment in the contract sum, contract time or both.

5.2 If the Contractor wished to make claim for an increase in the contract sum, written notice as provided herein shall be given to the Owner before proceeding to execute the work. Prior notice is not required for claims relating to an emergency endangering life or property. If the Contractor believes additional cost is involved for reasons including but not limited to:

- (1) A written interpretation from the Owner
- (2) An order by the Owner to stop the work where the Contractor was not at fault
- (3) A written order for a change in the work issued by the Owner
- (4) Failure of payment by the Owner
- (5) Termination of the Contract by the Owner
- (6) Owner's suspension
- (7) Other reasonable grounds, claims shall be filed in accordance with the procedures established herein.

5.3 If the Contractor wishes to make claim for an increase in the contract time, written notice as provided herein shall be given. The Contractor's claims shall include an estimate of cost and of probable effect of delay on progress of the work. In the case of a continuing delay, only one claim is necessary.

5.4 If adverse weather conditions are the basis for a claim for additional time, such claim shall be documented by data substantiating that weather conditions were abnormal for the period of time and could not have been reasonably anticipated, and that weather conditions has an adverse effect on the scheduled construction.

5.5 If either party to the contract suffers injury or damage to person or property because of an act or omission of the other party, any of the other party's employee's or agents, or of others for whose acts such party is legally liable, written notice of such injury or damage, whether insured or not, shall be given to the other party within a reasonable time not exceeding 21 days after first observance. The notice shall provide sufficient detail to enable the other party to investigate the matter. If a claim for additional cost or time related to this claim is to be asserted, it shall be filed as provided in subparagraphs 5.2 and 5.3.

ARTICLE 6. CHANGES IN THE WORK

6.1 A Change Order is a written order signed by the Owner and the Contractor, and issued after execution of the contract, authorizing a change in the work or adjustment in the contract sum or contract time. The contract sum and time can only be modified by a change order.

6.2 The Owner without invalidating the contract may order changes in the work within the general scope of the original contract consisting of additions, deletions or other revisions and the contract sum and contract time shall be adjusted accordingly. Such changes in the work shall be authorized by a change order, and shall be performed under applicable conditions of the contract documents.

6.3 If the Owner requests the Contractor to submit a proposal for a change in the work and then elects not to proceed with the change, a change order shall be issued to reimburse the Contractor for any costs incurred for design services, bid preparation or proposed revisions to the contract documents, with the addition of a change in time.

6.4 The Contractor shall be compensated for changes in the work necessitated by the enactment or revisions or codes, laws or regulations subsequent to the submission of the Contractor's proposal.

ARTICLE 7. TIME

7.1 Time Limits stated in the contract documents are of the essence of the contract. By executing the agreement the Contractor confirms that the contract time is a reasonable period for performing the work.

7.2 If the Contractor is delayed at any time in the progress of the work by changes ordered in the work, by labor disputes, fire, unusually delays in deliveries, abnormal adverse weather conditions not reasonable anticipated, unavoidable events or any causes beyond the Contractors control, or by other causes which the owner or the Contractor determine may justify a delay, then the contract time shall be extended by change order for such reasonable time as the Owner and the Contractor may negotiate.

7.3 The date of substantial completion of the work, or the portion thereof is the date certified by the Contractor when construction is sufficiently complete, in accordance with the contract documents, so the Owner can occupy or utilize the work or designated portion thereof for the use for which it is intended, as expressed in the contract documents.

ARTICLE 8. CORRECTION OF WORK

8.1 The Contractor shall promptly correct work failing to conform to the contract documents, whether observed before or after substantial completion and whether or not fabricated, installed or completed and shall correct work found not to be in accordance with the requirements of the contract documents within a period of one year form the date of substantial completion of the contract or by terms of an applicable special warranty required by the contract documents. The provisions of this article apply to work done by subcontractors as well as to work done by direct employees of the Contractor.

8.2 The Contractor shall complete the construction of the project to the dimensions of the construction documents, however there could be a variance in the field of up to 6", based on site conditions, materials used, or other encumbrances not known.

ARTICLE 9. TERMINATION OF THE CONTRACT

9.1 If the Owner fails to schedule a "Closing" with the Contractor on the work, for a period of 14 days after the certificate of substantial completion has been issued, through no fault of the Contractor, the Contractor may, upon 7 additional days written notice to the Owner, terminate the contract and recover from the owner payment for all work executed and for proven loss with respect to equipment, materials, tools and construction equipment and machinery, including reasonable overhead, profit and damages applicable to the project.
